

Dear FCC Commissioners,

Do not relax the current rules on media ownership. If further concentration in media ownership is allowed, we will all suffer from reduced diversity. NO ONE is served by relaxing the rules, except for the very largest media corporations. Do the right thing and side with the public interest, please.

Thank you,

Andre Williamson